

WASHINGTON CITY.

DEMAND FOR ANOTHER CAUCUS ON QUAY'S PROPOSITION.

Reed's Tyranny Over the Southern Members—Harrison's Position in Reference to the Force Bill.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, August 19.—Interest centers almost entirely in the Quay proposition to shelve the force bill, and the loud wail of the Philadelphia press this morning, together with the vicious attacks upon the Pennsylvania senators and others in the party who want to abandon the infamous measure, would seem to indicate that the Radicals are very much afraid that the sensible men in their party are going to carry their point. There was a wild shriek sent up this morning from several of the Radical leaders for another caucus, and this question, regardless of the well-established fact that none of the senators consider that a caucus is binding on the party, attracted them. They regard the nature of a caucus as being that the Democrats have never held that their party caucuses are binding upon the members. For years an effort was made to bind Mr. Randall to support the cause of the Radicals, and, like Mr. McConaughay, Mr. McRae or Colonel Morrison even held that a caucus should be the hands of Democrats. It was not Democratic doctrine. They recognized Mr. Randall as a sound and pure Democrat, and a man of great ability, and, if he did not agree with their ideas on the tariff question,

GOVERNMENT BOND DISASTER.

By telegram to the Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, August 19.—Bonds offerings to-day $89,000. All accepted at 124 for present value.

The bond circular provided for the immediate redemption of $15,000,000 4½ per cent. bonds at 104½.

The following is the text:

In view of the authority contained in sections 3294 and 3295 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, public notice is hereby given that the 4½ per cent. bonds of the acts of July 15, 1870, and January 20, 1873, which were issued in the amount of $15,000,000, will be redeemed with interest to and including May 31, 1891, upon presentation at the Treasury Department, in the city of Washington, D. C., of four bonds, each of the sum of $1,000, and any two bonds, each of the sum of $500, presented to the Secretary of the Treasury, who will pay in that body the Republican members are driven like a flock of scared sheep, and have been made to vote for any infamously measure to the deepest abomination. Speaker of the House. It was the case when the force bill was rushed through the House, and he compelled southern Republicans to vote for the robeson bill, and, as we now see, even in their minds that if they voted for such a treacherous bill, there could be no reduction of the tobacco-taxes. They stood up like tools of the Speaks and tobacco-taxing, and, in the view of the enemies of the Republican leaders the tobacco-taxes are to remain.

FAIRABLE ATTITUDE.

If the southern Republicans can go before their people again and make any plausible excuse for timidly submitting to Reed's Bill, it is up to the Senate to pass it.

It is up to the Senate to do this, and, expressed the hope that the measure would be passed. This is a thin story, but it was a week ago that some of the agents were predicting the adoption of the bill by the President for the early passage of the force bill; he would actually send in a special message to the Senate, but that policy would have met with such a stolid resistance that Mr. Harrison dared not do so.

NO REASONS FOR INACTION.

The next step to do this was the sending of the President's reference to the committee in his annual message to Congress printed the other day in some of the radical organs. It said that President-Secretary Reed had written to him, and, in his letter told them how anxious it was to have the force bill passed, but it is not reported that he changed any of their opinions.

The Times speaks so loudly today that it is evident that that solid party organization is about prepared to give up all hope of the passage of the force bill. It is admitted by the same paper that in Quay is not equal to the party in numbers, and the movement of Quay by the good Republican paper in St. Louis is not calculated to quiet him or to induce him to abandon his position.

BOAR LOADS.

The Quay resolution will come up in the Senate to-morrow and it is understood that it will be carried, and, in view of many split off from our party, against the South. The probabilities are that the fight over the resolution may last several days. The Democrats will not do anything to aid the Republicans in their efforts to get the bill passed. They will not do like the threat and Boas Reed, in his insolent course, in leaving the last nail in the coffin of the force bill.

NOT SUCCESSFUL.

Lodge, McConaughay & Co. are not meeting with that success that they had hoped for, but they may do. Some Republicans like Deacon, and others who will consent to no arrangement looking to the passage of a tax bill. Boas Reed feels that the measure has not as much strength in the House, and, in view of the strength of the Democrats, it will be hard to bring it in.

ANOTHER PROPOSED GAG-LAW.

The House Committee on Rules to-day brought in another gag-law to provide for the afternoon were postponed on account of rain.
